

For Immediate Release

St. Kitts Credit Union Empowers Teenage Mothers with Financial Literacy

Basseterre, St. Kitts – July 10, 2025: The St. Kitts Credit Union (SKCU) is proud to announce the successful completion of a financial literacy session tailored for teenage mothers participating in the Department of Gender Affairs' Project Viola Programme. The engaging workshop, held on July 8, 2025, aimed to equip these young women with essential financial knowledge and skills to foster greater economic independence.

The comprehensive session covered a range of crucial topics, including financial literacy fundamentals, practical budgeting strategies, the importance of saving, understanding good versus bad debt, and how to increase income by monetizing hobbies into business opportunities. The enthusiastic participation and positive feedback from the young mothers highlighted the impact and value of the initiative.

"The St. Kitts Credit Union is committed to the financial empowerment of all community members, and we are especially dedicated to supporting our youth," said Mr. Hodge, PDM of SKCU. Witnessing the engagement and enthusiasm of these bright young women yesterday reaffirmed our belief in the power of financial education to transform lives. We believe that by providing them with these foundational tools, we are helping them build a more secure future for themselves and their families."

The practical nature of the workshop resonated deeply with participants, one of whom articulated, "This session equipped us with helpful tips that we're eager to use for smarter budgeting and more effective saving."

This initiative underscores SKCU's ongoing perseverance to promoting financial awareness and stability throughout St. Kitts. The organization continues to actively seek opportunities to educate and support various groups within the community, ensuring that more individuals are equipped to make informed financial decisions.

For more information, please contact us at 869-465-2272.

-End -